

Lewisburg Chronicle.

BY O. N. WARDEN & J. R. CORNELIUS.

JUNE 13, 1856.

Published on the 13th of June, 1856, at Lewisburg, Pa., by O. N. WARDEN & J. R. CORNELIUS.

Pro-Slavery American Ticket.

For President—MILLARD FILLMORE, of New York.

Vice President—ANDREW J. DONELSON, of Tennessee.

Democratic Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

For President—FRANCIS P. PICKENS, of South Carolina.

Vice President—LEWIS CASWELL, of Virginia.

Whig, American & Republican Union Ticket.

FROM KANSAS.

CHICAGO, June 11.—The latter arrivals from Kansas confirm the accounts of civil war in that territory.

Twenty one Missourians, Carolinians, and Alabamians, have been killed in different engagements, and several Free State men wounded, but none killed. The U. S. troops generally dispersed the forces after the battles have been fought.

Gov. Shannon's proclamation has produced no effect. Gov. Robinson has been removed from Leavenworth to Leavenworth. The reported death of Marshal Donelson is incorrect.

Bodies of men are moving from Independence, Westport and other towns, to the territory. A party left Lexington on Saturday for Hickory Point or Lawrence, and a general battle is expected.

Mr. Fogg, Secretary of the Kansas Commission, has arrived at Washington. He fully confirms the accounts of the sacking of Lawrence, the burning and destruction of property, and general pillage.

He says a perfect system of terrorism is established throughout the Territory, the object being to intimidate and drive out the Free-State men by rendering their property and persons totally insecure, and to prevent others from coming.

Thief and open robbery of cattle, horses and all movables throughout the Territory, are daily made, and the person of every Free-State man is liable on every exposure to the bullet of the assassin.

Notwithstanding what has occurred the Free-State men are now judged to comprise three-fourths of the whole population.

WAGON TRAIN FOR KANSAS.—Fifty families left Wisconsin, on Thursday week, for Kansas overland. They were in covered wagons. The evening before departure, while encamped on the prairies near the town, they had a meeting, which was attended by a number of their friends.

Col. Benton publicly denounced the attack on Mr. Sumner as the result of "a conspiracy." His emphatic and characteristic language is, "This is not an assault, sir, it is a conspiracy; yes, sir, a conspiracy. These men hunt in couples, sir. It is a conspiracy, and the North shall know it."

Two companies of United States Dragoons, at Carlisle Barracks, have been ordered to march about the first of June, to Fort Riley, in Kansas. The Government is determined to sustain mob-law and ruffianism in Kansas.

Hon. John M'Lean. This celebrated jurist, whose name is becoming conspicuous in connection with the Republican nomination for the Presidency, was in 1823 appointed Postmaster General by President MONROE, in which office he was continued till the administration of JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.

General JACKSON entered upon the duties of President on the 4th of March, 1829, and on the 7th of March he appointed Mr. M'LEAN Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, his place in the Cabinet being filled on the 9th of the same month by the appointment of Wm. S. BARNEY, of Kentucky. Judge M'LEAN has discharged the duties of Justice of the Supreme Court, with distinguished ability from that day up to the present time. He has always been equally opposed to the extension of Slavery and the infringement of any constitutional right of the slaveholders.

Border Ruffian Atchison. This man, once the President of the United States Senate, has become a very degraded creature. Just before the bogus Sheriff Jones and his ruffian posse entered the town of Lawrence to burn and sack it, ATCHISON made a speech to them, while standing on a brass howitzer, which he afterwards fired off himself, but was too drunk to aim it correctly. A correspondent of the Tribune gives it in full, and says that while those who are not acquainted with the honorable General's style may object to its profanity, still it is characteristic, and two men who heard him, vouch for the correctness of the speech as thus reported:

"Boys, this day I am a Kickapoo Janner, by G—! This day we have entered Lawrence, 'Southern Rights' inscribed on our banners, and not one d—d Abolitionist has dared to fire a gun. No, by G—, not one! This, boys, is the happiest day of my whole life. We have entered the d—d city, and to-night the Abolitionists will learn a Southern lesson that they will remember till the day of their death. And now, boys, we will go in with our highly honorable Jones and test the strength of that d—d Free State Hotel, and learn the Emigrant Aid Society that Kansas shall be ours. Boys, ladies should be, and I trust will be, respected by all gentlemen; but, by G—, when a woman takes on herself the garb of a soldier, by carrying the garb of a woman, and, by G—, treat her for what you find her, and trample her under foot as you would a snake. By G—, come on, boys! Now do your duties to yourselves and your Southern friends! Your duty I know you will do, and if a man or woman dare to stand before you blow them to h— with a chunk of cold lead!"

The followers of this man—the Atehisson Democrats—were admitted into the Cincinnati Convention which nominated Buchanan and Breckenridge. The same Convention kicked out the BENTON wing of the party. Whether Benton or Atchison is the best Democrat, let old-line Democrats judge next November!

[Atchison, it will also be remembered, as soon as the Kansas bill passed, deserted his seat in the U. S. Senate, and went to work to organize the "Blue Lodge" which have been so active in bringing Slavery upon Kansas.]

Correspondence of the "Chronicle."

LANCASTER, Pa., June 5, 1856.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—The prediction in your issue of the 27th of May, in reference to the election of a U. S. Senator by our Legislature, is verified. Hon. James Dixon was elected by a handsome majority on the first ballot on Wednesday of this week. Mr. Dixon's precedents, while a Member of Congress, are a sufficient guarantee that Connecticut will be ably represented, and his unwavering attachment to the principles of Freedom, and especially now to freedom in our Territories, is assurance sufficient that he will stand by the side of Sumner and Hale, and the Ruffians will have at least one more head to bruise before they have crushed out freedom of speech and subdued with pistols and gutta-serena the men they are unable to cope with in argument.

A brief account of the retiring Senator and the Connecticut Democracy, may not be uninteresting at this time. Six years ago, Mr. Toucey was elected, and served quietly but I suppose to the best of his ability until the introduction of the Nebraska Bill, when the Legislature requested him to use his efforts in the Senate to secure the passage of that Act. Contrary to the wishes of his constituents and the express instructions of the Legislature of the State he represented, he went heading for the Bill! The only excuse for his conduct is that he was elected by the Democrats, and that being a Democratic measure he was obliged to support it. Now have you seen the result of his wickedness and folly. He returns only to be remembered as the man who arbitrarily and willfully misrepresented the people of Connecticut, and who aided in perpetrating the greatest wrong that ever befell our country.

I was not a little surprised to find that after Mr. Toucey's very shameful conduct, that after a New England man—he still found supporters here, and at every ballot for Senator every Democratic vote was cast for him: thus have the Democrats of Connecticut committed themselves fully. They endorse the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, together with its long train of evil, which "civil war with its horrid train of fire and slaughter carried on without the slightest provocation against the infant settlements of our brethren on the frontier of the Union, and the worse than civil war at the Capital," are not the only consequences.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.—On Thursday the 5th, the New York question was settled by taking half of each Delegation—the Hards for Buchanan and the Softs for Pierce.

The Platform of '52 was re-elected, with some additional planks; which we propose to publish side by side with those of the Republican Convention.

The following resolution was laid on the table: Resolved, That the Democratic party recognizes the great importance, in a political and economical point of view, of a safe and speedy communication by military and postal roads through our own territory, between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts of this Union, and that it is the duty of the Federal Government to exercise promptly all its constitutional power for the attainment of that object.

On Friday—"unlucky day"—the nomination was effected. The following is a summary of all the ballots:

Table with 4 columns: Ballots, Buchanan, Pierce, Douglas, Cass. Row 1: 1, 1575, 122, 20, 675. Row 2: 2, 1575, 122, 20, 675. Row 3: 3, 1575, 122, 20, 675. Row 4: 4, 1575, 122, 20, 675. Row 5: 5, 1575, 122, 20, 675. Row 6: 6, 1575, 122, 20, 675. Row 7: 7, 1575, 122, 20, 675. Row 8: 8, 1575, 122, 20, 675. Row 9: 9, 1575, 122, 20, 675. Row 10: 10, 1575, 122, 20, 675. Row 11: 11, 1575, 122, 20, 675. Row 12: 12, 1575, 122, 20, 675. Row 13: 13, 1575, 122, 20, 675. Row 14: 14, 1575, 122, 20, 675. Row 15: 15, 1575, 122, 20, 675. Row 16: 16, 1575, 122, 20, 675. Row 17: 17, 1575, 122, 20, 675.

The Convention, after some unimportant business, proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Vice President, the first ballot resulted as follows:

Table with 4 columns: Breckenridge, 55; Fitzpatrick, 11; Quitman, 59; Brown, 20; Boyd, 35; H. Johnson, 31; Bayard, 13; Rusk, 2; Dobbin, 13; Polk, 5.

On the second ballot, John C. Breckenridge, of Kentucky, received the unanimous vote.

A resolution endorsing the course of Pres. Pierce was declared to be unanimously adopted, although half a dozen cried out "No!" very vociferously.

The following is a detailed statement of the first ballot by States:

Buchanan—Maine 3, Massachusetts 4, Connecticut 6, New York 12, New Jersey 7, Pennsylvania 23, Delaware 2, Maryland 2, Virginia 1, North Carolina 1, Kentucky 4, Indiana 1, Michigan 6, Wisconsin 2, Total 134.

Pierce—Maine 3, New Hampshire 5, Vermont 5, Massachusetts 9, Rhode Island 2, Connecticut 6, New York 12, New Jersey 7, Pennsylvania 23, Delaware 2, Maryland 2, Virginia 1, North Carolina 1, Kentucky 4, Indiana 1, Michigan 6, Wisconsin 2, Total 134.

Mr. Buchanan is the first old Federalist who has run for President in forty years.

JOHN C. BRECKENRIDGE is a "nephew of his uncle," Reverend Robert J. Breckenridge, so notorious for his pious defence of Slavery thro' the Southern periodicals.

John C. is a "fast man," a favorite with Young America, a fluent speaker, served with honor in the Mexican war, was two terms in Congress and dared not try the third heat, and had a formal chance for a foreign mission. His Congressional career is remembered for his challenge to F. B. Cutting of N.Y. to mortal combat for the exercise of a guaranteed right, and also for his advocacy of the Kansas fraud. His challenge of a brother Member for words spoken in debate, admirably exhibits his will, if chosen presiding officer of the U. S. Senate, to "subdue the North" without the help of Brooks! His recent offers will test the consistency of those who did not vote for Henry Clay solely because in his younger days he was confirmed to the dueling code: if that killed the illustrious Kentucky Whig, it must kill the Kentucky Democrat.

As an active participant in the Kansas swindle, he can not plead that he was "absent," or that he "would have preferred not to," or have the "old landmark" removed.

The next Democratic National Convention is to be held in Charleston in South Carolina, the home of Brooks, the most ultra Slavery, Nullification, Aristocratic unit in the United States, and every way unsuited to such a convention, if freemen attended. The Buchanans seemed to play the dog to Slavery to the very last.

Herbert of California, the murderer of a poor Irish waiter, was a Delegate to the Cincinnati Convention, and voted for Buchanan and Breckenridge.

Correspondence of the "Chronicle."

LANCASTER, Pa., June 5, 1856.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—Thursday, June 5, 6 o'clock, P. M., left Lewisburg—Hess's oaks took us to the railroad, and before dark we were safely deposited in the old packet boat. About 11 o'clock, the master and mistress of dormitory ceremonies having drawn the veil between the Jew and Gentle countries, we were permitted to retire to our respective shelves to seek "nature's sweet restorer" as best we could, amidst the patterings of the water, thumps of the boat against the insides of the locks, and the wranglings of the boat's crews as they passed each other in the night.

Being an old fogey, I naturally disliked altitude, consequently, took a lower shelf; but fortunately or unfortunately, I laid my head adjoining the ladies' apartment, amidst the incessant clatter of remark on circumlocution, having the upper or the lower seats (or rather lounges) in the synagogue, I had no rest. In listening to the expressions of their meriment, I thought, O, happy woman! thy equanimity of mind, and nimble ventral of thoughts, can make a happy woman of a most disagreeable circumstance. It almost made me wish I was a woman, instead of an old fogey. I took a higher and more northern shelf, and I no longer, carried in the arms of Morpheus, soon died away in the vesper of the southern breeze.

In the morning when I awoke, it was raining almost equal to the prelude to Noah's flood. I found my wardrobe all in its place, except my understandings, I could find nowhere. After some search, a friend told me I might get them by a certain part of the boat I had left behind me. I had to do, although before I left home, Dick had given them a beating that would have done them at least a month.

June 6—Took breakfast on the boat—took the cars at 7 o'clock, and got to Lancaster at 9 A. M. A very comfortable and well-arranged more so by the very accommodating attention paid to passengers by Captain Murphy; you can get your railroad tickets at any point, on the boat, from the Captain, and baggage checked, so that you have no trouble on the way, all you have to do is to walk in and out of it.

I found the old city of Lancaster pretty much as it was two years ago, except one thing: on visiting some of the cemeteries, I found many monuments that recorded the decease of many individuals (names strange to me) who had been placed here in 1854. Human life is an unbroken stream, emerging from beneath the mountain of time, and descending beneath the mountain of eternity. O that our godly race could see more distinctly the spurs of that mountain against which the locomotive of time whirring so fast, is passing!

The name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan's nomination came to town about noon, on Friday. I heard some drums beating, and some horns blowing, and occasionally a loud explosion. On inquiry, I was told they were blowing rocks somewhere in the city, but the next morning the "daily" told me that the name of Buchanan